Court House Mass of Ruins—Negro's Attack Started Riot

(By Associated Press.)

Omaha, Neb., September 29. — After a night of mob rule, during which a negro was lynched, an attempt to hang Mayor Smith, of Omaha, the county court house burned, one man shot and killed and perhaps forty others injured, the city was quiet today under patrol of federal troops.

The mayor is at a hospital and was unconscious early today, as a result of the attempt made by the men to hang him to a trolley pole because he advised against the lynching of William Brown, a negro, who was in the county jail charged with attacking a white girl on the outskirts of the city.

Mayor Smith was seized by the mob near the court house about 10 o'clock. He was hustled to Harney street and stopped at the foot of a trolley pole, on the cross-arm of which was a rope. The rope was pulled down and thrown around his neck.

Appalled at the possibility of murdering the city's chief executive, protests began to be heard. Then, two officers cut the rope, carried the mayor to an automobile and rushed him to a hospital.

The fire that was started in the court house left that structure a mass of ruins. The property was valued at a million and one half dollars.

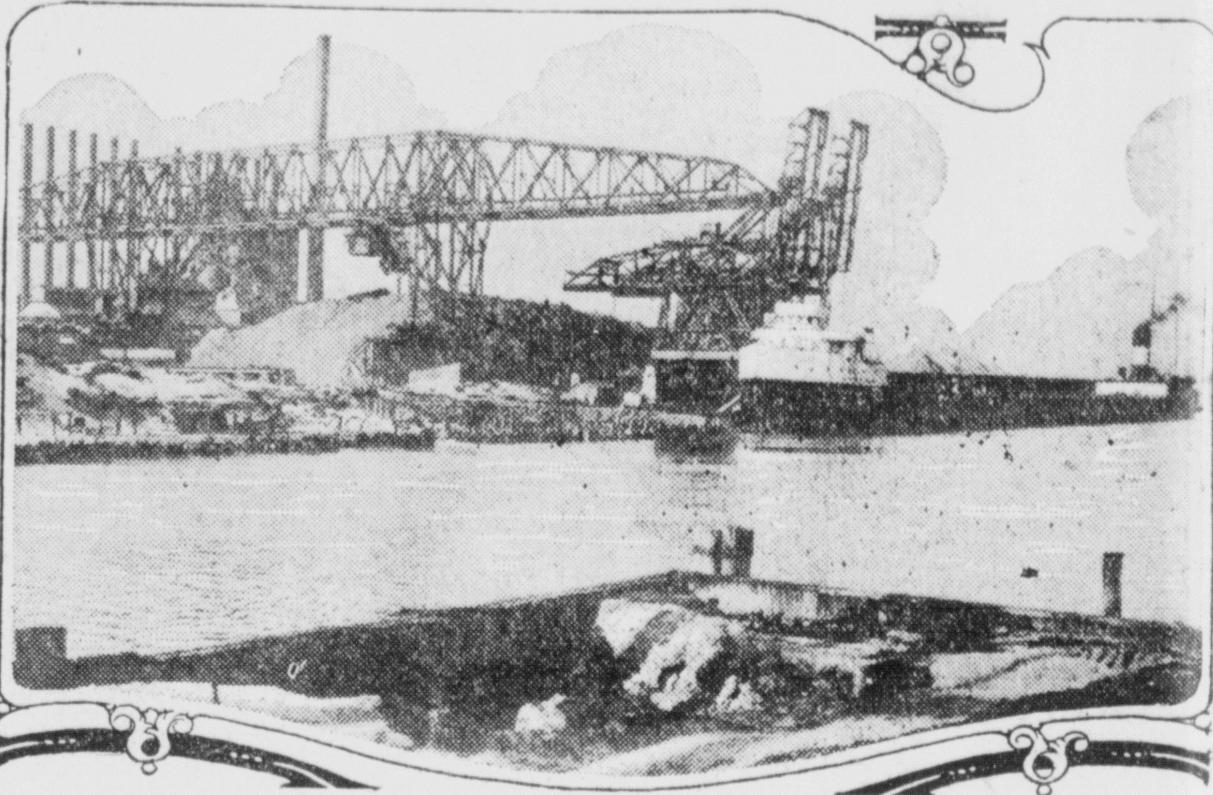

For several hours the lives of more than 100 prisoners in the county jail were endangered by the flames in the lower floors of the building. It was finally necessary to send them all to the roof.

Sheriff Clark stood off the angry mob until the flames caused the prisoners themselves to take action. They at first decided among themselves to throw the negro from the roof to the pavement below and leave him to the destruction of the mob.

It was at this moment that the mob gained entrance to the building and pushed past the sheriff and his deputies, forcing their way to the cell corridor, where the negro was handed over to them.

Brown was practically dead before he was hanged. His body was mutilated beyond recognition, riddled by hundreds of bullets, when it was placed over a fire of tarred fagots. Later it was taken down and dragged through the streets.

The destruction of the court house came as a result of lack of police protection for the firemen. Officers threw their clubs, guns and badges of authority away and quit their jobs cold. This afternoon it was stated the mayor had recovered consciousness, but his physicians said it was too early to make a definite statement as to his condition.

MAYOR REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS

(By Associated Press.)
Omaha, September 29.—The condition of Mayor Smith was reported by physicians to be slightly improved today. The Mayor, who suffered from cuts and fractured bones recovered consciousness at noon.

Latest reports estimate the number at 46 to 60. Only two persons were killed, the negro who was lynched and a white man.

March Into Weirton, W. Va., Of Striking Steel Workers Is Given Up As Troops Assemble.

Leaders Claim Weirton Workers Organized And No Excuse For "Invasion."

Fifteen Companies of O. N. G. Ready To Go.

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., September 29. — Although troops ordered mobilized yesterday were ready today to prevent striking steel workers at Steubenville marching into West Virginia to organize the workers at the Weirton Steel Company plant at Weirton, indications were their services would not be necessary.

Reports received by Governor Cox stated the Steubenville strikers had cancelled their plans for a parade to Weirton. Union leaders said necessity for the parade had passed as the workers had been organized. Fifteen companies of Ohio National Guards were being held in their armories today ready to move if necessary.

In a telegram to the Mayor of Steubenville, Governor Cox pointed out that the executive authority should not be invoked until local authorities have exhausted their efforts. The aspect of the proposed invasion, the governor stated, presents something more than a dispute between capital and labor, and added that "the laws of the state must and will be respected and enforced."

"The spectacle of aliens establishing a code of their own is something that will not be tolerated upon Ohio soil," the governor's telegram said.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, September 29. — Two resolutions relating to landing American sailors at Trau, in Dalmatia, after Italian forces had taken possession of the port were introduced in the Senate today and started spirited debate.

One by Senator Sherman, republican, would declare unwarranted "interference by the United States with the Italian boundary," and that any action by the landing forces would have no binding force on the American government. It was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee.

Another resolution by Senator New, republican, would request the State Department to inform the Senate as to the truth of the report that the landing of the troops was made under orders of the British Admiralty.

Rome, September 29. — Debate in the Chamber of Deputies was interrupted today by a free-for-all fight lasting ten minutes and in which about 100 deputies participated.

The opinion is expressed that the cabinet, as result of the riotous trouble may decide to resign rather than plunge the country into a struggle during a general election.

It is claimed that the fight in the Chamber of Deputies indicates what would occur in the country should the cabinet not resign.

Sympathetic Strike in Cleveland Called By the Ore and Coal Handlers.

Little Change Apparent in First Real Test of Strength By Titans.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, September 29. —Today, proclaimed by both sides as one of the crucial tests in the great steel strike, opened with the situation still obscure because of conflicting claims. The opposing sides issued flatly contradictory statements regarding the strike today of the 40,000 workers in the plants of the Bethlehem steel corporation. The corporation officials claimed the strike call had been obeyed only by a very small number and that operations in their mills were continuing.

The union officers replied that the huge plant at Bethlehem was completely crippled and that the power house had been forced to close.

Reported conditions in the other great steel centers indicated the balance was being held fairly equitably between the two opposing sides.

On the other hand there was nothing to support the predictions of the steel company that the day would see wholesale desertions in the ranks of the strikers but there was a definite increase in the mill operations.

At Farrell, one of the most hotly contested sectors, the Carnegie Steel Company resumed operation of two blast furnaces.

To offset these relative minor gains the strikers at Cleveland were successful in tying up the docks of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Ohio Steel Company through a sympathetic walkout of ore and coal handlers.

As usual at headquarters on both sides the utmost confidence in the final issue of the struggle was expressed.

FAYETTE FARM BUREAU FIGHTS CLASSIFICATION

Meeting Held Saturday Evening Results in Firm Stand Against Measure.

Raise Fund to Wage War Upon Proposal Coming Before Voters.

The Executive Committee of the County Farm Bureau held an important meeting at the Court House Saturday night. The principal subject before the meeting was the proposed amendment to the State constitution authorizing classification of property for taxation.

While a careful consideration was given to arguments presented in favor of classification there was not a person present, including a number of members of the county bureau as well as the executive committee, who was not emphatically opposed to the enactment of the amendment.

The phase of the subject receiving most attention was how best to organize the county and render assistance to the State Home Protective League which is leading the fight over the State. It was practically decided to reach each voting precinct personally to make sure that every voter had a chance to understand the question. This matter will be taken up further at the meeting Saturday evening October 4th.

The Farm Bureau voted to send at once to the state league the sum of $100, to be followed with more funds as needed. A subscription paper was started to raise funds for this purpose and $125. was raised in the time it took the nineteen men present to sign their names to the paper.

The county bureau recognizes that high prices have shortened the value of the counties tax dollar, but it is convinced that classification of property would reduce the number of the dollars available instead of relieving the situation in any way, it is stated. Furthermore it believes this matter is of importance to the merchants in the county as well as to the farmers.

The meeting next Saturday will be held in one of the court rooms at 7:30 p. m.

It pays to advertise.

COUNTY WITHOUT CORONER DURING PAST NINE MONTHS

Fayette County has been without a coroner for the past nine months—and didn't know it.

And during the nine months no call has been made for the coroner, while during the 12 months prior to that only one call had come for this of ficial.

This came to light with the formal declaration of Dr. C. A. Teeters, former coroner that he has never qualified for the office and has not considered himself coroner since January 1st, 1919, when his term in office expired.

It will be recalled that Dr. Teeters, who served several years in the capacity of coroner, declined to be a candidate in 1918, but his name was written in by a large number of persons, and he was re-elected.

Not desiring to hold the office longer Dr. Teeters declined to qualify, and now has the equipment that goes with the office ready to turn over to any successor who may be named by the proper authority.

XENIA HIGH TEAM HITS HILLSBORO

Washington High School's rival for next Saturday on the gridiron, Xenia High, defeated the Hillsboro gridders Friday afternoon by the close score of 6 to 0. Hillsboro held the Xenia lads for downs on different occasions and the Xenia Blue and White did not cross the line until the third quarter. They failed to kick goal.

The Washington team expects a hard game with the Central High squad and look for comparatively easy sailing the remainder of the season after the old enemies are defeated.

TRACTION STILL IN OPERATION

Hillsboro citizens are making an effort to determine when the C. & C. traction line from Hillsboro to Perintown is to be abandoned, or if it is going to be abandoned, inasmuch as the traction is still in operation and is transacting a heavy business.

Mr. Perin, secretary of the Hillsboro committee is now in communication with the authorities at Cincinnati.

WAS FUGITIVE FOR THREE YEARS IS ARRESTED HERE

Albert Bruer, for three years a fugitive from justice, was arrested on the Blue farm a few miles west of this city, Sunday, by Sheriff N. B. Hall, who was accompanied by Chief of Police D. L. Moore and W. R. Beale, probation officer of Clermont county, who had secured the assistance of the local authorities in locating and arresting Bruer.

Bruer, according to Officer Beale, has been trailed over three states—Kentucky, West Virginia and Ohio for the past three years, and recently it was learned that he was located on the Blue farm west of this city, having written a letter to relatives in Clermont county.

Bruer was wanted for two offenses, abandonment of his family of nine children and for assaulting a man with a bar of iron and seriously injuring him.

When the officers reached the Bruer house the man endeavored to make his escape, but was promptly collared and ironed. He was returned to Clermont county without delay to face the charges against him at that point.

STOCKHOLM MOST EXPENSIVE PLACE IN ALL EUROPE

(By Associated Press) London, August 20.—(By Mail)—Travelers arriving here from Stockholm, after visiting some of the other capitals are firm in their conviction that it is the most expensive city in Europe.

The staple coin is a krona, just over 25 cents, and it costs 32 krona for bed, breakfast and bath in a hotel.

The simplest meals cost $5, and wine is prohibitive at about $20 a bottle for the worst war champagne. A taxicab for an hour costs $7.50 and five krona is the customary tip for a meal, while one is expected to give a krona to the man who happens to be handy and insists on opening the door you would rather open yourself.

"I have been in many places these past five years," said a recently returned traveler, "Moscow and Bagdad, Bombay and Saloniki, Cairo and Rome, Paris and Petrograd, London and Monte Carlo, Brussels and Milan. The cheapest of them all was Monte Carlo, Stockholm was the dearest."

"They put it all down to the close proximity of Bolshevism. One does nothing for oneself in Sweden."

HENRY A. PAVEY
ENDS HIS LIFE

Word reached this city Sunday evening of the death by suicide in Leesburg, Sunday afternoon, of Henry A. Pavey, 75, retired attorney, formerly of Hillsboro, who placed a gun in his mouth and pulled the trigger, dying almost instantly.

It is understood that financial reverses caused the rash deed while Mr. Pavey was in deep despondency as result of constant worry over his misfortune.

Until recently Mr. Pavey lived at Norwood, Ohio, and a short time ago he went to Leesburg to make his home with his brother.

The deceased has large family connections in the Leesburg community, and his untimely death is a severe shock to relatives and friends generally.

While returning from Jeffersonville to his home on the Prairie pike, recently, Ben Allen had a narrow escape from being burned to death when his Maxwell automobile suddenly burst into flames.

COMPOSER OF
HANGED SELF

Lille, August 26. — (Correspondence of the Associated Press, by Mail)

—The tragic death of Adolphe Degeyter, the composer of the "Internationale," who passed away here during the German occupation has just become known to the city. Degeyter, a man of strong character, laborious workman, had written several songs which he and his brother-in-law used to sing. He made no pretension to being a musician but took great pleasure in playing the bugle. It was on this instrument that he played the famous air which he wrote to the words of Eugene Pottier's hymn and the first time he sang it was to some of his comrades in a cabaret here.

Then his wife died. His brother went to Paris and passed himself off as the author of the famous air.

Then the Germans came. Degeyter suffered acutely from having to work for them on the town water supply. When the typhus epidemic spread he was ordered to report at the military hospital and one day he failed to present himself. The "Kommandantur" issued a warrant for his arrest. In the evening he hanged himself.

He is buried in the cemetery near the hill here where a little wooden cross with the name "Adolphe Degeyter" marks the grave of the author of the "Internationale."

War-Time Wages

One of the greatest obstacles left in the path of peace and industrial rearrangement, on a peace time basis, by the war, the actual preparation for war and the war time work, is the high price of both skilled and unskilled labor.

In the feverish haste of preparing for war, building cantonments and constructing the hundreds of necessary mechanical devices, by the millions, it was necessary that the government have labor at once. There was no limit to the amount of labor the government required to do the enormous work and do it at once. Time was then the one important consideration—cost was of no consequence—and the government spent money with a prodigal hand. Labor was offered a compensation beyond the dreams of the most exacting. The government with its unlimited financial ability entered the field and outbid all competitors. Workers who had jobs laid down their tools and went to work for the government. Skill or experience were not considered. Man power the government demanded and secured.

The result, now that the war is over, is only too evident. Men who can work and know how to work—skilled workmen,—are demanding of private enterprise the same enormous wage scale that the government paid in war time and private enterprise can't pay such wages and live. Even the unskilled laborer refuses to "turn his hand" to honest toil unless offered a wage, in most instances, quadruple his worth.

The nation is suffering from a labor shortage unequalled in our history and primarily because of the government war time wage scale.

Perhaps it was a mistake to offer such wages in war time, but we are inclined to believe that it was a necessity of war and the present condition is one of war time's wrecks which we must clear away.

The present disarrangement of labor, the disordered mental attitude, is one of the greatest destructions wrought by war on industrial conditions.

A Welcome

Washington and Fayette county citizens, under the leadership of the War Work Council and the Eagle Lodge, of which he was a member, turned out by the hundreds Saturday morning and welcomed Sergeant "Red" Ducey back, safe and sound, to the old home town. They gave him a welcome which for sincerity could not have been exceeded anywhere.

The fightin' Marine looked, "every inch" of him, in harmony with the splendid record which had preceded him. He is the typical American soldier—only a sergeant but his record is worthy of all the fine reports that have been made of him.

He left home a private—entered the Marine Corps—made good, and it takes a real American to make good the Marines. That means making good with the best of them on earth.

The President

President Wilson, sick and exhausted, suffering from nervous breakdown, which his physicians assure the public is not serious, has cancelled his speaking engagements and returned to Washington.

We all hope, of course, that the recovery of the chief executive of the nation will be rapid and complete.

We cannot help hoping, at the same time, that the physical breakdown of President Wilson will have a sobering effect on his many critics who seem, of late, to have gone to extremes in blaming everything that goes wrong upon President Wilson and to have become so intemperate in their criticism of him that they frequently resort to downright abuse.

President Wilson has made some mistakes and we have feared that he would make other mistakes which he never did make. He is different from any other President in the history of the nation. He has broken many precedents and opened up the way to new thoughts and new action. He has in the main, considering the tremendous problems which have confronted him, been a great president.

Of late we have lost sight, apparently, of the great achievements of President Wilson and contented ourselves with finding fault with him. It had become rather the popular thing to criticize and abuse President Wilson. His sickness may bring realization of the great things he has done and what we would do now without him at the helm as the great problems of peace are pressing for solution.

He has carried an awful burden of responsibility during his term of service. It is easy enough to find fault with what is done and what has been done, but with all his shortcomings, he has been devoted, sincere and tireless in laboring for what he believed to be for the good of the nation.

POETRY FOR TODAY

"IF"

(With Apologies to Kipling)

If you can keep your Ford when all about you
Are selling theirs and buying Cadillac;

If you can just be tickled all to pieces
When notified to pay your licence tax;

If you can feel a quiet sense of pleasure
When driving on a rough and hilly road,

And never move a muscle of your visage
When underneath you hear a tire explode;

If you can plan a pleasant week-end journey,
And tinker at your car a day or so,

Then thrill with joy on that eventful morning—
To find no skill of yours can make it go;

If you can gather up your wife and children,
Put on your glad rags and start off for church,

Then have to wait around in greasy rearings,
And spoil the best of all your stock of shirts;

Yet through it all maintain that sweet composure,
That gentle calm befitting such events,

If you can sound a bugle-note of triumph
When steering straight against a picket fence;

If you can keep your temper, tongue, and balance,
When on your back beneath your car you pose,

And struggle there to fix a balky cog-wheel,
You drop a monkey-wrench across your nose;

If you can smile as gasoline goes higher,
And sing a song because your motor faints,

Your place is not with common erring mortals—
Your home is over there among the saints!

—J. Edward Taft.

FARM NOTES

Treating Wheat For Smut

Losses from stinking smut of wheat were rather high this year and many growers are planning to clean up next year's crop by seed treatment this fall.

Very smutty grain probably should not be used for seed but may be used if treated by the soaking and skimming method. If not much smut is present the sprinkling method which is more easily handled may be adopted.

The formaldehyde solution is prepared by stirring one pint of formaldehyde in 40 gallons of water. This will treat about 50 bushels of grain. In the soaking and skimming method the grain is poured slowly into this solution and stirred. Floating smut kernels and smut balls are skimmed before they take up water and sink. The solution is then drained off the grain dumped into a pile, and covered for not more than two hours.

In the sprinkling method, the grain should first be thoroughly re-cleaned so as to remove all the smut balls possible, spread out in a thin layer, and sprinkle with the formaldehyde solution until fairly wet. Then it should be piled up and covered with canvas or blankets for two hours. After this it should be spread out again to dry.

All treated grain should be sown as soon as possible in order to avoid injury to the germination. All treated grain not sown within 24 hours should be discarded for seed purposes. It may be fed if thoroughly aired.

Importation of Many Fine Flowers Stopped.

Flower lovers are beginning to feel the effects of the quarantine established by the Federal Horticultural Board on June 1, restricting the importation of many of our finest flowers which we were receiving yearly from foreign countries. The quarantine is directed against the importation of foreign insect pests and plant diseases, the contention being that America should restrict the entrance of any more pests into our country. It affects principally the importation of greenhouse azaleas, boxwoods, evergreens, perennial plants of the choicer varieties, hydrangeas and orchids, the named varieties of roses, and all the bulbs except lilies, narcissi, hyacinths, tulips and crocuses, and therefore, excludes gladioli, tuberous rooted begonias, frezias, gloxinias, bulbous iris, tuberosees.

In time it may be possible for us to grow all these various plants for ourselves, but for the propagation of many of them our conditions are not favorable and our labor would seem to be too expensive.

100 Bushels Per Acre Corn Yields Sought by Many.

One hundred farmers in Ohio are striving to raise one hundred bushels of corn to the acre this season. They are entered in the Men's 10-Acre Corn Contest, conducted by the Ohio State University. The yields are based on shelled corn reduced to a moisture content of 20 percent. Members of this contest are automatically entered in a contest conducted by a farm paper of national circulation, offering 18 medals and $10,500 in cash.

AMERICA SENT GREAT AMOUNT OF MEDICAL GOODS

Bucharest, August 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press, by Mail)—The American people sent 156,000,000 pounds of medical and relief supplies into the Balkans through the Red Cross during the first six months of 1919, according to a report just made public here by Colonel Henry W. Anderson, Commissioner to the Balkans.

Of this total, Rumania, Serbia and Greece received the larger portions; Smaller shipments going to Montenegro, Albania and Bosnia. The largest item in point of tonnage consisted of clothing and material for clothing. Rumania, for example, received 650,000 yards of cloth; Serbia 733,000 yards; and Montenegro 225,000 yards. Seven central stations were employed for handling these goods. Salonika was the most important port on the Red Cross map.

ENDOW NINETY FRENCH FAMILIES OF THE WORLD

Paris, August 18.—(By Mail)—Ninety French families with nine children living will each year hereafter receive donation amounting to 25,000 francs each. The French Academy has just received a donation for the foundation of this work from M. and Mme. Congnacq. The amount of the capital is not mentioned but to produce ninety donations of twenty-five thousand francs annually it would at the present interest rates be at least 40,000,000 francs.

COAL SCARCE BURN SMOKE

(By Associated Press)
London, Sept. 3. (By Mail)—Coal scarcity and the uncertainty of the supply for the coming winter are combining to turn the attention of engineers to some system of smoke consumption which, while saving fuel, will serve to cleanse London's murky atmosphere. To the present no practical system that will come within the purse of the average householder has been devised, but experiments along that line are being carried out by a number of corporations.
London uses soft coal in preference to anthracite and within an hour after six o'clock in the morning, when London servants arise, the air is filled with the long spirals of smoke from countless chimney pots. The sky soon is entirely obscured.

The Temperature Test May Be the Means of Saving a Life

Fall is a season of changeable weather conditions and as a result children are subject to much exposure. Slight colds and other ills may develop into something serious if not watched. The best way to determine the true condition of children or adults who show signs of fever, is to take their temperature with a reliable

WRESTLERS READY TO GO TO FINISH

Chick Saylor, promoter, arrived in this city Monday morning to complete arrangements for the wrestling bouts to take place at the Armory tonight.

Tom Hillery, the local boy who will wrestle Cliff Binckley, the champion of Ohio, arrived at his home Sunday evening after training a week with Matty Matsuda, who has taken charge of the Washington strong boy. Matty states that Tom is in the best shape that he has ever attained, in preparation for his match with the Columbus man.

For the preliminary, Jimmy Whitehead will go to a finish with George pappas, the Greek wrestler. This match promises to be unusually interesting.

Women will be admitted free. The bouts will be put on at the armory.

BRITAIN QUIET DURING STRIKE

(By Associated Press.)
London, September 28.—The people of Great Britain have not spent a quieter Sunday than today since the time of stage coach travel. With railway traffic gone and a great curtailment of trolley and street car facilities in the larger cities, most of the population had nothing to do but stay at home.

London was oppressed with funeral quiet. Great crowds stood about all day but all were quiet.

TWO BIG ISSUES FACE CONGRESS

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, September 28.—The German peace treaty and the steel strike remain the engrossing affairs of Congress this week. Prospects of a vote before next Saturday on the amendment to the treaty proposed by Senator Fall, Republican of New Mexico, together with President Wilson's return to the capital, is expected to bring to a head the vital issues in the treaty contest.

It's unfair to say about all the jobs some of the returned soldiers want is "soldiering."

TWO MEN SHOT BY CLEVELAND HOLD UP MEN

Cleveland, Ohio, September 28. — Two men were shot by a robber who later was wounded by Detective Hartmann when in the downtown section Saturday afternoon following the hold-up of John Hudgeon, a Colonial Arcade dweller.

The identity of the wounded men has not been obtained. The wounded robber is reported to be dying at a hospital.

The thief entered Hudgeon's jewelry store and asked to be shown diamonds and when Hudgeon stooped to lift a tray of gems the robber struck him on the head with a revolver, cleaned the window of diamonds, valued at $2,000, and turned to flee.

His escape was blocked by a customer who entered the store, at whom the bandit fired, the bullet having struck the other man in the hand.

The fugitive fled through the arcade but collided with Hartmann, at whom he fired twice, one bullet having struck a bystander in the knee. Hartmann then shot the robber twice in the chest.

Washington Senator In New York Address Says Wilson Is World's Greatest Menace

New York, September 28. — President Wilson was characterized as "the world's greatest menace" in an address by United States Senator Miles Poindexter at a mass meeting of Queens County Republicans in Long Island City Saturday.

The meeting was conducted to celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Republican party. Senators James W. Wadsworth and W. M. Calder, of New York, also spoke.

The Senator from Washington, after having blamed the President for delay in ratifying the peace treaty, said he was "the greatest pro-German in the country," and that his theories and suggestions regarding "the democratization of industry" had encouraged radical labor leaders to attempt to bring about "a dictatorship of the proletariat," which means "the overthrow of our Republican form of government."

Treaty Opponents Defended.
Referring to the President's imputation that certain opponents of the peace treaty and covenant were "pro-Germans and Bolsheviks," Mr. Poindexter entered a vigorous disclaimer, declaring at the same time that the President "was forced into the war against the Germans by an irresistible public opinion in opposition to his will, and attempted as late as 1918, to precipitate a negotiated peace, and thus defeat the aims of the allies."

"The Reds of the world regard him as their leader," asserted Senator Poindexter.

THE COMFORTS of THE AMERICAN HOME

It is a well known fact that, home for home, the American household has more comforts and conveniences than that of any other nation.

In foreign lands the modernized dwelling is found only in the better sections of the larger cities.

In America, even in remote rural districts, you find the piano, the vacuum cleaner, washing machines, up-to-date heating systems, telephones and numberless electrical appliances.

There is a well-kept look about residence, store or outbuildings with an atmosphere of prosperity and content.

Did you ever stop to realize why this is so; how this condition was brought about?

It is largely due to advertising. And a big share of credit belongs to newspaper advertising.

Stop and think how many of the foods you eat, the things you wear and other articles entering into your everyday life, you first heard of through newspaper advertisements.

You will then realize what a part they do play, or should play, in your daily life.

Read the advertisements in the newspapers regularly and thoroughly, if you are not already doing so. They mean more to you than you can tell.

COLD CASTLE NOW OCCUPIED

(By Associated Press)
London, August 30.—(By Mail)—
With the departure of King George from London to Balmoral to spend his holiday much has been written about the draughty condition of Balmoral Castle where he will reside.

The story is recalled of a visit to the same castle by the late King Edward, who was once discovered sitting in the harness-room of the stables.

Surprise was expressed by the members of the household finding him in such surroundings.

"Dash it man, I must go somewhere to get warm", was his reply.

GREAT SEA WALL AT GALVESTON SAVES THOUSANDS OF LIVES

LIFE WAS SAVED BY POSSESSION OF EQUIPMENT

Proper Equipment at Proper
Time is the Means of Saving Many Lives.

The Fayette Hospital has made a splendid record during the past few years but, as one of those actively engaged in the effort of securing a new hospital declared, it has performed a great duty, but like other things has been left behind in the rapid progress of late years and is but the stepping stone to the new project under consideration by the people of this city and county.

At a recent meeting of the workers who are planning the campaign for a new hospital an instance was cited by a local physician whereby the absolute necessity of a hospital to meet the needs of the community was graphically illustrated.

It seems that a short time after the addition of several articles of equipment to the local hospital that an accident occurred which required the very instruments and which were probably the means of saving a human life. The physician stated that in an auto accident on the Chillicothe pike the driver of the car was thrown from the machine and his head struck a telephone pole, breaking the nose, crushing his forehead, breaking the lower jaw in two places and causing the roof of the mouth to fall.

The victim of the accident was rushed to the Fayette Hospital near the midnight hour and placed on the operating table. The newly acquired instruments were required, brought into use and by the aid of several physicians every effort possible to save the life was made, although it seemed that the case was hopeless.

In ninety days that patient was able to walk into the doctors office and shake hands with him.

With the modern and well equipped hospital now under consideration such cases could be properly and promptly treated and many lives might be saved, that might otherwise be lost. In the instance cited it was fortunate that proper attention was possible at the hospital. Now there are any number of cases that may happen and the proper treatment be impossible unless we act.

TAKE RAILWAY ROLLING STOCK FROM THE REDS

(By Associated Press.)

Omsk, via Vladivostok, August 12.—(By Mail)—Ninety percent of the railroad rolling stock in the Perm, Ekaterinburg and Cheliabinsk districts was pulled out before the territory was given over to the Bolsheviks, according to General Jack of the Inter-Allied Technical committee, who assisted in the evacuation. Over 30,000 freight cars and approximately 600 locomotives were saved.

The railroad bridge over the Kama at Perm, 970 yards long, was put out of commission by the Siberian military before leaving. It is not so seriously damaged, however, that it cannot be easily repaired. One complete span was dumped into the river.

The Kama fleet, thirty-nine vessels, several of which had been converted into gunboats but later dismantled, was accidentally burned.

General Jack left Perm four hours before the Bolshevik shells began to fall in the town. With him came Otto T. Glaman, American vice consul, who had been asked by the Russian authorities to remain at his post as late as possible for the moral effect of his presence on the population during the days of evacuation. General Jack was loud in his praises of Glaman for valuable assistance rendered him in keeping trains moving.

The peasant population as well as the bourgeoisie fled before the Bolshevik advance. Families loaded their possessions onto carts or boxcars and took the road east. Every country road leading out was filled with these carts moving in caravans leading cows and horses, often carrying pigs and fowl. It was not unusual to find a family of four or five crowded into a box car with all their domestic animals and household goods, bound eastward with no fixed destination.

Practically no stock of merchandise were moved. The railway machine shops were left intact as were factories of all sorts, no effort having been made to destroy them, as would probably have been the case of evacuating to a foreign foe.

LANSING LEAVES SUMMER HOME

Watertown, N. Y., September 29.—Secretary of State Lansing departed Sunday for New York, from where he will go to Washington. He has spent three weeks at his summer home at Henderson's Harbor.

WAS FIRST OVER NOW BACK HOME

Corporal Albert Slavens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Slavens, of Hinde street, this city, Saturday returned from military service overseas, wearing four service stripes denoting more than two years service overseas; a Croix de Guerre won by bravery on the field of action, and numerous bronze and silver stars, indicating the number of major engagements in which he took part.

Corporal Slavens, so far as known, was the first Fayette County boy to reach France.

Enlisting in the Artillery May 28, 1917, Corporal Slavens set foot on French soil August 20, 1917, as a member of Battery E, 5th Field Artillery, First Division, and he went through some of the hardest fighting in which Americans took part, which means some of the most bitter fighting during the whole war.

Like just a few other Fayette county boys who were in the hardest fighting at Soissons, in the Argonne and other notable engagements, Slavens was not wounded, although for seven weeks at one time he was unable to speak above a whisper because of having been gassed.

FIRST SAMPLE OF U. S. BATTLERS SEEN BY BRITONS

(By Associated Press)

London, Sept. 3.—(By Mail)—The provisional regiment of American soldiers who followed General Pershing in the Peace Day procession was the first sample of American fighting troops to march in London. Other organizations seen here had been on their way to the battlefields, while these men were returning.

"Here were the Americans in steel helmets, marching in companies eight abreast with bayonets fixed," said the Daily Express. "They were as jovial as any when the procession halted, for a time, but while they marched their faces were as serious and as immobile as the gravest of graven images. They made a profound impression on the onlookers. Their marching was Roman in its sternness and precision."

"A magnificent regiment it was," said the Daily Telegraph, "young men all of them and the quintessence of the alert and lithe. Khaki clad in brown steel helmets they looked most workmanlike."

"How magnificently they marched, swinging past in perfect alignment, with a long easy stride, heads held high and shoulders squared," said the Daily News. They are greeted vociferously with as good cheering as I ever remember having heard in London."

EVERY MEMBER OF MY FAMILY TAKES THE NEW REMEDY

Columbus contractor got so much good from Drecto, put the others to taking it also.

Here is a strong endorsement given to Drecto, the new herbal remedy, by a substantial citizen of Columbus, O. He is Mr. P. W. Wilson, a contractor having lived in South End for the past six years, and is the proud father of two children. He says:

"The cases I read about in the papers seemed to fit mine exactly, so I got a bottle of Drecto. I stayed bilious all the time and gastritis attacked me after each meal. I had a burning sensation in my stomach. My kidneys seemed to be deranged, and I had to get up several times during the night my back was weak and often ached."

"I've finished my first bottle, and now I want some more for I want every member of my family to take Drecto. It has done me worlds of good, and I strongly recommend it."

Persons suffering from constipation, weak kidneys, sluggish liver, poor digestion, or stomach trouble of any kind, are advised to give Drecto, the great root and herb remedy, a trial. It overcomes gastritis, indigestion, and dyspepsia, aiding the stomach to carry its load. Rouses a sluggish liver to healthy action; gives strength to weakened, deranged kidneys; relieves constipation; induces sound, refreshing sleep, and increases the appetite, thereby giving renewed strength and vigor to the vital organs.

All good druggists now sell Drecto and it is highly recommended in Washington C. H., by Frank Christopher.

Don't be too hasty in bowing to the inevitable. It may be a case of mistaken identity.

MORE DISABLED SOLDIERS SENT AWAY TO SCHOOL

Vocational Training To Fit Soldiers Who Were Disabled in War.

Efforts Made to Reach Every Disabled Soldier in Fayette County.

Three more disabled soldiers, veterans of the fighting in France where they received wounds, left this week to take up vocational training in their chosen profession. They were placed through the efforts of Miss Mary Robinson, head of the local Home Service Department of the Red Cross.

Donald Willis, who suffered an attack of influenza while in the service at Camp Sherman, and afterward developed valvular heart disease while yet in the hospital through weakness caused by the influenza, and was sent to Oteen, North Carolina, has been placed in Notre Dame University where he took up the course in technical engineering.

The men disabled in the service were John Veedy, John Bowens and Kirby McCarty. Veedy was severely gassed and has been sent to Valparaiso, Indiana, where he will engage in elementary studies, before taking up the regular course in agriculture. Mrs. Veedy is accompanying her husband.

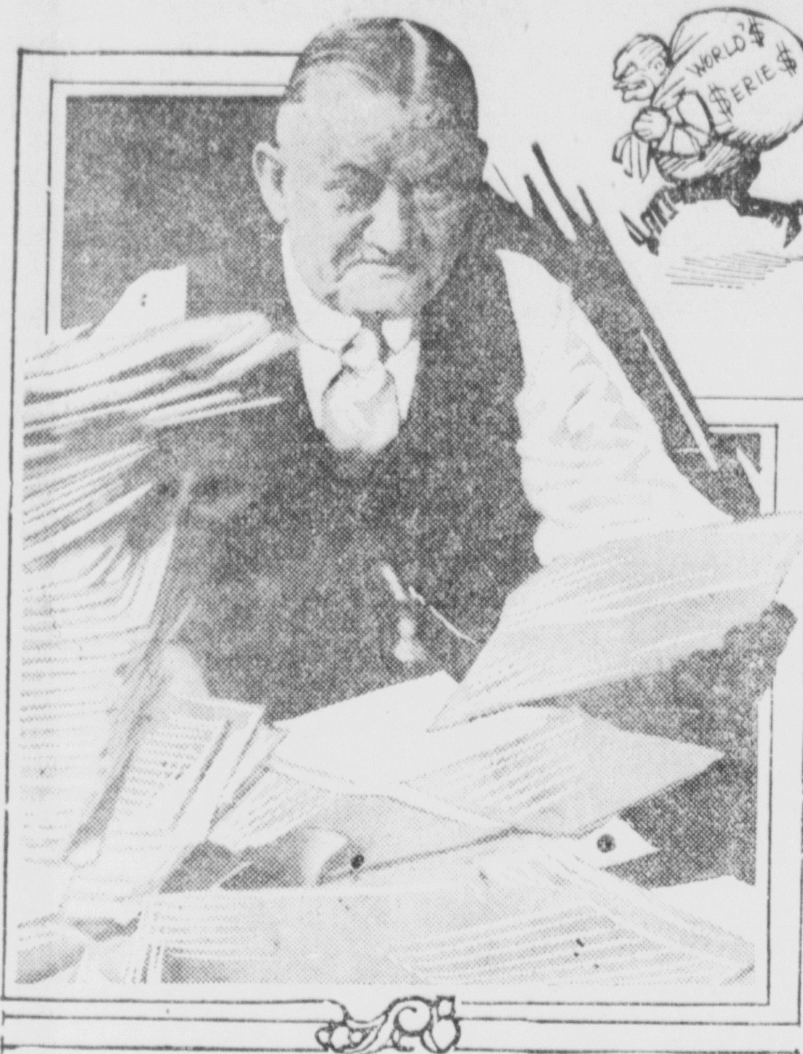

John Bowens, who has been under the doctor's care all summer, goes to Berea, Kentucky, to take the course in farm tractor mechanics.

Kirby McCarty is attending the same school and will engage in the same course. He will be accompanied by his wife.

The Red Cross is making an effort to get in touch with every disabled soldier in the county in order to offer the advantage of the vocational training if he desires to enter the courses. Any person knowing of a person eligible for the training is asked to notify the Home Service Department. It is the purpose of the department not to overlook a single man who desires the training which will fit him for a useful occupation in order to overcome the handicap received by service.

IT'S A BIG YEAR FOR GARRY HERRMANN

Garry Herrmann, at his desk, opening applications for world series tickets.

If we had managed a ball club which had climbed from oblivion to the top of the National league and copped the pennant in one short season we imagine we'd appear a little more cheerful than does Garry Herrmann, president of the Reds, in this photo. Garry's wading into a stack of mail from Red fans making reservations for seats for the world series games. Maybe Garry's worried because he can't fill all the orders for reserved seats.

GREAT BRITAIN IS SPEEDING UP HER PRODUCTION

(By Associated Press.)

London, August 27. (By Mail)—Confronted by what is described as perhaps the greatest industrial and trade crisis in the history of the country, the commercial leaders of Great Britain are bending every effort to speed up production, says American Chamber of Commerce in London. One movement undertaken to head off the difficulties foreseen is an effort to induce the workers to increase production by showing them the "dangerously critical position" in which Great Britain is now placed by the balance of trade against her.

For July, the adverse balance of trade amounted to about $380,000,000 according to figures given out by the American Chamber. Imports for that month increased about $150,000,000 while exports increased only about $3,500,000.

The American Chamber points out that this discloses a serious situation and says that while it may seem very well for Great Britain to buy from America much more than she sells to America, that is a "fool's paradise" for Americans. The Chamber explains that an excessive adverse balance against Great Britain would force down sterling exchange on New York and compel Great Britain to buy elsewhere, where exchange is higher.

"The only way out of this," continues the statement of the American Chamber, "is for America to invest in British securities and to buy generously of British materials and goods that can be used to advantage. This would give Great Britain the wherewithal to pay for her imports from the United States until she builds up her exports to pay for them. If this is not done it is obvious that the United States' exports to Great Britain must drop off."

BULGARIA HAS SETTLED DOWN TO ENJOY PEACE

(By Associated Press.)

Geneva, Switzerland, August 28. — (By Mail)—Bulgaria is one of the most tranquil states in Europe today, says Ivan S. Guichof, formerly Bulgarian Minister of Foreign Affairs and now Minister to Switzerland.

Instead of resorting to revolution, the Bulgarians have returned to their farms and peace time pursuits, believing this to be the only way of curing the ills caused by two successive wars, the Minister adds.

M. Guichof ascribes this peaceful internal condition and the opposition in Bulgaria to anarchistic or communist propaganda to the fact that the majority of the Bulgarian people, 85 percent, are peasants, owners of their own land and homes. This is sufficient, he says, to show that the people so constituted as the Bulgarians are will always be averse to communistic tendencies.

Another reason for internal peace is the fact that crops in Bulgaria have been good.

Lots of flat-footed people never seem able to put their foot down squarely on a subject.

SAFETY Electricity Increases Values SAFETY

It is an established fact that houses wired for electricity command a greater return and are more in demand. Then why should property owners hesitate to wire their houses, when the cost is so small in comparison with the benefits.

Then, too, it costs no more to have it done well. The kind of wiring you want is the kind I do. Telephone for me when you want house wiring or anything else electrical.
